

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1900.

LOCAL MATTERS.

no rain tomorrow at 5:10 a. m. and at 7:04. High water at 12:00 noon and 12:16 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section, fair and cool tonight, possibly light rain in exposed places. Saturday fair with a fresh northwesterly wind, becoming variable.

SCHOOL BOARD.—At the monthly meeting of the City School Board held last night there were present Messrs. Thompson, Aitchison, Kane, Bryant, Caron, Swanson, and Dr. Smith, the absence of the chairman, Dr. Smith presided.

The committee on school houses and furniture recommended that the roofs of Peabody, Washington and Academy buildings needed repainting and the work was ordered to be done.

The Superintendent stated that the biennial report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction had been received and copies had been placed on the desks of the members.

The Superintendent reported that it would be necessary to close the schools a week earlier this year than heretofore, as the Superintendent of Public Instruction had set the time for the uniform examination of teachers during the last week in June, and in order to allow such teachers as wished to do so to attend the examination the early closing would be necessary.

The Superintendent also reported that he had visited all the schools during the past month and found them all doing well.

The Superintendent officially reported the death of Mr. George Darley, a member of the board from the Second ward, and the clerk was directed to inform the City Council of the vacancy thus caused, and Messrs. Caron, Bryant and Thompson were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolutions respecting the memory of Mr. Darley.

RECEITAL.—Lovers of classic music more than realized their expectations in the presentation of music far above the average by the Mills Ladies' Quartette at the Opera House last night. The audience was of small proportions, but it was an appreciative one, and expressed its approval in liberal applause. The members of the quartette—Mrs. Anna Craig Hiles, Miss Edna Doe, Miss Salome Wingate, of Washington, and Miss Rebekah Polard, of this city—are under the tuition of Mrs. Mills, a well-known musician of Washington, and the programme was arranged in a manner to bring out the distinctive tones of the participants, which made a very striking contrast.

Miss Collins, who was the soloist of the evening, succeeded in introducing somewhat of an innovation which all the more delighted her friends, for she appeared with charming ease and grace, and the fact that she studied under Mrs. Mills assured an authentic interpretation. Her voice was sweet, clear and melodious, and she was forced several times to bow her acknowledgments to the applause which followed her efforts. The quartette was assisted by Mr. Angelo Frosani, a young Italian pianist of Washington, whose selections added much to the success of the evening.

THE MEMORIAL BRIDGE.—The bridge design—that of Prof. Burr—selected for the memorial bridge across the Potomac from Washington to Arlington by the board of award of the federal government contemplates a handsome structure that will be a great addition to the architectural attractions of the national capital. It is to be a highway bridge, free from heavy traffic, though street cars may perhaps be permitted. Over the ship channel of the Potomac there is a bascule, or counterpoise, bridge which will permit the passage of vessels. At either end of the bascule will be lofty towers of handsome design that will impress the visitor by their magnificent proportions and graceful details. From the towers to the banks on either hand there will extend arches of granite masonry of wide span and on the banks the level of the bridge will be reached by suitably contained embankments. It will be when built one of the finest bridges in the world.—[Baltimore Sun.]

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late G. W. D. Ramsay, whose death in the 32nd year of his age occurred on Wednesday, took place this evening from the residence of his son, Mr. G. Wm. Ramsay, on Cameron street, and was attended by a large circle of friends, relatives and acquaintances of the deceased who at the time of his death was Alexandria's oldest native-born citizen. The services were conducted by Rev. F. J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church, and the interment was in the Presbyterian cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. H. Marbury, J. W. Burke, J. R. Zimmerman, W. A. Smoot, Geo. W. Jamieson and L. E. Uhler.

MEMORIAL DAY.—Confederate Memorial Day will, as usual, be observed in this city on the 24th inst and the exercises will be under the auspices of E. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, assisted by the Woman's Auxiliary and the United Daughters of the Confederacy. At the next meeting of the camp, on Monday night, committees to arrange for music, decorations and other features will be appointed. An address will be made at the Confederate monument, corner of Prince and Washington streets, and from there the procession will move to Christ Church yard, where the mound containing a number of Confederate dead will be decorated.

REINICKER LECTURES.—The Rev. Henry Van Dyke, D. D., professor at Princeton University, will deliver the second course of Reinicker lectures for the session of 1899-1900 on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, the 7th, 8th and 9th of May. On Monday and Tuesday the lectures will be at 5 o'clock p. m., and on Wednesday at 12 o'clock m. The subject of the course is "Egypt and the Bible." As Dr. Van Dyke is both a prominent divine in the Presbyterian Church and a well known author and man of letters his lectures will no doubt attract much interest and a large attendance is expected.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves' signature on each box. 25c.

The easiest and most effective method of purifying the blood and invigorating the system is to take Dr. Williams' Little Early Bitters, the famous little pills for cleansing the liver and bowels.

G. F. & O. D. R. R.—The officers of the Great Falls and Old Dominion R. R. The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infection is demonic enough to warrant the belief. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists.
